(“Contractor”), and Murfreesboro City Schools (“Customer”), and amends the Enterprise/Schools Terms and Conditions, and all attachments, exhibits, schedules, addenda, physical or electronic documents, references, click-through, clickwrap, shrink-wrap, online terms, and any other documents or agreements incorporated therein or presented in connection with Customer’s access to or use of Contractor’s products or services (collectively, the “Agreement”). In consideration of Customer’s use of Contractor’s form Agreement, the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree that the Agreement is amended and supplemented as follows:

2. Indemnity, Limitation of Liability and Disclaimer of Warranty. Article II, Section 29 of the Tennessee Constitution prohibits governmental entities from lending their credit to private entities and, therefore, prohibits an agreement by Customer to indemnify a third party or agree to a limitation of liability provision. Any indemnity or hold harmless provision contained in the Agreement requiring Customer to indemnify or hold harmless Contractor or any other person or entity and any limitation of liability in favor of Contractor is deleted. No provision of this Agreement shall act or be deemed a waiver by Customer of any immunity, including its rights or privileges afforded by the Tennessee Constitution or state law including but not limited to any provision of the Tennessee Governmental Tort Liability Act, T.C.A. § 29-20-101 et seq. Because Tennessee law may not allow Customer to agree to the disclaimer of warranties any such disclaimer of warranties shall be enforceable only to the extent permitted by Tennessee law, and Customer reserves all rights afforded to local governments under law for all general and implied warranties.

Customer does not have the burden of establishing that information is not confidential information or that its release is authorized to release the records. This section 3 serves to meet such burden and authorization of disclosure.

4. Governing Law. The Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the laws of the state of Tennessee, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

5. Selection of Jurisdiction, Waiver of Jury Trial, Venue, Service of Process. Pursuant to the Constitution and Laws of the State of Tennessee, Customer is a sovereign entity subject only to those courts with jurisdiction over Customer. If a dispute arises between the parties concerning any aspect of the Agreement, and it cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, any party may resort to resolution of the dispute by litigation in the state courts in Murfreesboro, Tennessee or the Federal court for the Middle District of Tennessee. However, neither party shall be obligated to provide any type of pre-suit notice before initiating a cause of action. The parties waive their right to a jury trial. The parties hereby consent to the mandatory and exclusive venue and jurisdiction of the state court located in Murfreesboro, Tennessee or the Federal court for the Middle District of Tennessee. Service of process on Customer shall comply with the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure or applicable federal rules, and Customer does not agree to any other service of process procedure.

6. Responsibility for Litigation Costs, Expenses and Payment of Attorney's Fees. Article II, Section 29 of the Tennessee Constitution prohibits governmental entities from lending their credit to private entities and, therefore, prohibits an agreement by Customer to indemnify a third party or agree to a limitation of liability provision. This prohibition extends to contractual provisions for the payment of attorney's fees. In the event of litigation between Customer and Contractor each party shall be solely and exclusively responsible for the payment of litigation costs, expenses and attorney's fees excepting those costs which may be awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction as specified by Tennessee law or applicable rules of civil procedure.

7. No Unauthorized Click-Through Terms. No District employee, teacher, administrator, student, parent, account user, or other individual may bind District to any click-through, clickwrap, browsewrap, online, electronic, supplemental, updated, or incorporated terms unless such terms are expressly approved in writing by District's authorized representative. Continued use of the Services, account access, login activity, acceptance by an individual user, or failure to object to online terms shall not constitute District's acceptance of any new, revised, or additional terms.

8. Dispute Resolution. The Parties acknowledge and agree that no mandatory negotiation, mediation, or waiting periods shall be required prior to the initiation of litigation. Either Party may file suit at any time in a court of competent jurisdiction. Any voluntary dispute-resolution efforts undertaken by the Parties shall not delay either Party's ability to pursue legal or equitable relief. The Parties further agree that any dispute-resolution procedures shall apply equally to both Parties, and no Party shall have a unilateral right to bypass any agreed procedure. Any mediation or settlement discussions shall occur at a mutually agreeable time, place, and format, including remote mediation. Each Party shall bear its own costs.

9. Amendment. This Addendum and the Agreement shall not be modified or altered other than by written agreement executed by both parties.

10. Survival. This Addendum shall survive the completion of or any termination of the Agreement or other document which may accompany the Agreement or be incorporated by reference.

11. No Presumption Against Drafter. This Addendum shall not be construed for or against any party because that party or that party's legal representative drafted any of its provisions. Accordingly, this Addendum shall be construed without regard to the rule that ambiguities in a document are to be construed against the draftsman. No inferences shall be drawn from the fact that the final, duly executed Addendum differs in any respect from any previous draft hereof.
