CodeHS & Washington County Schools Computer Science Proposal

January 30, 2025

Summary

This proposal outlines pricing options for Washington County Schools to partner with CodeHS on their computer science implementation starting in the 2025-2026 school year.

By partnering with CodeHS, Washington County Schools can implement a comprehensive computer science program. We can help provide access to a wide-variety of interdisciplinary and CS focused curriculum that meets TN state standards. We can also collaborate to ensure students across the district have access to relevant, engaging, and flexible CS pathways.

In addition to the curriculum we provide, CodeHS's tools and platform can be used to empower teachers no matter their CS experience. We will also support teachers through dedicated and ongoing support, online professional development workshops, and continued learning opportunities.

CodeHS was founded in 2012 and has supported over 4.5 million students in learning computer science. CodeHS has extensive experience working in the state of TN to help implement computer science programs in schools.

Licenses/Services Overview

District Pro Teacher License: This license includes access to all Pro and district features for a single teacher, as well as all gradebook, progress tracking, lessons, customization, and district administrator features.

Virtual PD Workshop: CodeHS will run virtual workshop sessions, covering tools, methods, and curriculum. Virtual sessions are led on zoom by the CodeHS Professional Development team. Teachers are introduced to the CodeHS platform, how to run their computer science class, and how to use the curriculum. These workshops are customized to the district and approved by district administrators in advance. Virtual PD can be half day, 1 day or two days.

PD Membership: Membership for teachers that include access to exclusive PD sessions throughout the year, a library of over 190 on-demand PD sessions, access to all mini-PD courses, access to CodeHS teacher microcredentials.

School Setup Fee: Fee to set up a school within the CodeHS system.

Proposal for cabinets

The price for the cabinets as pictured installed at grandview is $22228.00 plus tax.

The scope of this work is to install the cabinets, install the laminate countertops with a cove rolled rounded edge. The cabinets will be of all wood construction, with slow close doors and drawers, dovetail drawers (for greater drawer life), and a kiln dried powder coat paint finish in one of our selected colors. The cabinet color and countertop color will have to be selected.

N O T E S

Hey Heather!

Thank you for considering Premier Garage for your garage flooring needs. We are delighted to offer our expertise in providing high-quality, durable, and aesthetically pleasing flooring solutions that will transform your garage into a functional and visually appealing space.

Please look over the designs and proposal and let me know if you have any questions or any changes you'd like to see or how you want to proceed.

Should you choose to move forward with your project, and you have no further questions or changes, please read carefully the bullet points in the Terms & Conditions section, and then click on the orange "Accept" icon just below the total price. This will take you to the sign-off section. Type your name where requested, sign, and enter your credit card details for the 50% non-refundable deposit. Please let me know if you'd prefer to pay your deposit in some other manner, in which case I need to make a slight change in order for the system to allow you to accept without providing credit card details.

We would tentatively schedule your installation (subject to receipt of materials and other circumstances outside our control) once we have received your acceptance and deposit. As of right now, the next available date is in the week of April 28th, but that can change pretty quickly.

If you have any questions, please give me a call or text me at 423-388-8151 or send me an email at the email address above.

Thanks!

Section 9.2 Environmental Requirements

1. If the machine is installed in a location where the ambient temperature is more than 86°F (30°C), do not run full color printing longer than 2 hours, and never turn the main power switch off immediately after a long print job. Leave the machine on so that the fans can expel the hot air from the machine and cool the electronic components.
2. If the installation site has air-conditioners or heaters, put the machine in a location that agrees with these conditions:
 - Where there are no sudden temperature changes from low to high, or high to low.
 - Where the machine will not be directly exposed to cool air from an air conditioner in the summer.
 - Where the machine will not be directly exposed to reflected heat from a heater in the winter.
4. Do not put the machine where it will be exposed to gases like ammonia that can cause corrosion.
5. Put the machine on a strong & level surface. The front and rear of the machine must be level $\pm 0.1''$ ($\pm 2.5\text{mm}$).
6. Never put the machine where it can be subjected to strong vibration.
7. Never connect the machine to a power source shared with other electrical devices.
8. The machine can generate an electromagnetic field which can cause interference with radio or television reception.
9. For environments which may contain pressroom chemicals, cleaners, and fumes on a constant basis, within close proximity to the Ricoh product, considerations to maintain image quality, performance, and parts longevity should be discussed before product installation. The following list may provide some guidance:
 - Ventilation specification of the location or space where the Ricoh product is installed. This would include the movement/displacement of air away from the printer.
 - Ventilation performance during production times of day as well as idle, non-production time of day. Gases and other chemicals can settle during these times and deposit a film over certain imaging components.
 - Paper should be stored in a chemical-free environment for optimal image quality and performance.
 - Consult with your Ricoh team for an on-site walk through to determine the optimal installation location.
